Volunteer leadership and assistance is one interpretation of the Ridley motto "Terar dum Prosim" (may I be consumed in service). For 95 years the Ridley spirit has upheld the motto's meaning. Thus, as we look toward the future, it is time to begin uncovering new and renewed sources of volunteer leadership and assistance.

Headmaster's Message

Dear Ridley Family Members:

The Winter Term just ended, but winter is still here with no less than a foot and a half (did the Judge say that we could still say it that way?) of snow. The Lower Niagara Peninsula received its biggest snowfall in many years, as March came in like a frosty lion. The School doctor, John Stewart, a 17-year resident of St. Catharines, was never previously snowed in at his house, and in this storm he was caught there for two days. St. Catharines may have had an all-time distinction in getting more snow than Buffalo in this Blizzard of '84! Classes went on despite depleted day student numbers and a large crew of gatees under the supervision of the Headmaster and Grounds Foreman, Bill Montgomery, assisted the School's little tractor to plow the gymnasium drive and in front of Lower School. Most other places in Canada, and possibly elsewhere, it would have been just another storm — but here in the Banana Belt it was exciting!

The snow, in such unaccustomed mass, lifted students' minds a bit from all the pressure of those term papers, left much too late in this term with no final examinations. It assuaged the physical and psychological malaise that translates into Infirmary Reports such as that for a student one day last week: "URI (Upper Respiratory Infection) and Despair". Actually, the last word was a bit garbled between the nurse's writing and the Xerox, and was really "Discomfort". I bet it really was despair, though!

Now all have flown away to spend many mornings' of sleep recuperating, except those who have sunny beaches to go to. The Cricket XI is off on a tour of Jamaica where Mrs. Lewis, Assistant Director of Admissions, will also be conducting some admissions interviews. Contrary to rumour, cricket prowess is not at the top of the check-off list for West Indian candidates to Ridley (see academic statistics below). Four Ridley young ladies are off for a spring term in France where they will live with French families and attend Lycees. Rowers will brave icy winds, in cooler climates, the Heavies (male and female) at Syracuse, the Lights at Western.

Lent Term saw a fine athletic season, with the Orange and Black winning the ISAA Championship in basketball for the second year in a row, and coming in second in Swimming and Squash. Hockey kept shooting themselves in the foot, and despite some great games such as Ridley's first win over UCC in five years, failed to live up to their potential, coming in fifth out of eight teams in ISAA hockey.

Rather than run on longer, I would present some statistics which I gave, in an unaccustomed move for the Ridley Headmaster, to the Board of Governors in their February meeting. They found them interesting enough to suggest I share them with you. They concern academic results, with the prime figures coming from the end of Michaelmas Term, with

Adjustments in parentheses, from this Lent Term: (see below)

From these statistics one could draw many possible conclusions — one or two of which might have more than ephemeral or anecdotal significance. For now I leave you to make of them what you will. I am off to Vermont for some cross-country skiing — if it doesn't rain and freeze the way it did at Christmas. I also have to worry about the Headmaster's Conference in April, while taking some comfort in the better than ever admissions statistics for inquiries, interviews and acceptances in the first two rounds — all up over last year's high. By the time you read this, A Squad will be (we hope) once again green, we'll all be a bit tired again — though probably not in despair, yet!

The Headmaster's Conference on April 27-28, for members of the Board, Advisory Council, Ridley Fund Class Agents, and invited Friends of the School will examine Ridley today and cogitate a bit on Ridley as it moves towards its Second Century. Guest speakers include University of Toronto President, David Strangway, on Friday evening, Peter Gzowski of the CBC (O.R. '52) at our continental breakfast on Saturday, and Dr. John Ratte of the Executive of the National Association of Independent Schools and Headmaster of Loomis-Chaffee School, Windsor, Connecticut at the luncheon on Saturday . . . Cultural excursions and events included nine students to The Merry Widow in Toronto, January 17; art course trips to the Royal Ontario Museum; and the concert on February 26 of the Royal Canadian Congress of Organists in the Chapel . . . In debating, the Ridley novices learned much in the 2nd Round of Fulford (Independent School) Cup competition, February 16, but in the OSDU Regional finals, teams of John Richardson and Shamez Kanji (both Grade 13 school prefects, and day students from St. Catharines), Kendra Gransden '84 of Toronto, and Greg Chapman '84 of Niagara-on-the-Lake did very well with Kanji going on to the National Finals and Richardson to the Provincials. Kanji and Richardson also won the best team award in the Regional Finals . . . Athletic Tours and Tournaments included the Squash team going to Princeton and University of Pennsylvania on February 6-10; and the girls' 1st Volleyball Team entering their first international tournament at Choate Rosemary Hall in Connecticut on February 18th — they came in 3rd, beaten only by Club teams with adult players. . . . Harry Li ('85) of Hong Kong has broken the School and the Appleby pool records this winter in the 50 and 100 yard breast stroke . . . The Second Annual Winter Term Sports Awards Dinner featured Guest Speaker Mike Carson, '64, who regaled the School with tales of the old days of gymnastics, the Assault at Arms. School Prefects Tom Urban and Steve Burpee attempted to be humorous as masters of ceremonies while top awards went to Ted Badner '84, and David Vigh '84, co-captains of basketball; Cap's

Cup in gymnastics to Jim Kushnir '85 of Fonthill; Most Valuable Player in Girls' Volleyball, Liz Murphy '85 of Toronto; the "Bulldog" school squash championship trophy to Tom Urban '84 of Des Moines, Iowa; in hockey, the Headmaster's Trophy for "effort, ability and clean play" went to Graham Stanley '85 of St. Catharines; the Bunston Extra Effort Trophy for "commitment" to Captain Mike Thususka of Brampton, Ontario; and the Montgomery Trophy for the Rookie of the Year, to Sean Murphy of Espanola, Ontario. In Swimming, the UCC Trophy went to Steve Burpee, '84 of St. Catharines, the Al Staples Award for "the greatest improvement" to Harry Li of Hong Kong, while the Fullerton 2nd Team Trophy went to Colin Woo '84 of Diego Martin, Trinidad . . . Spring Term in France this year for four Ridley Grade 12's, Emily Alexanian of Kitchener, Ontario, Georgina Black of St. Catharines, Ontario, Allison Loucks of Fonthill, Ontario, and Sandy McMillan of Willowdale, Ontario. They will be placed by the Comité d'Accueil Canada France in French households and lycees either in the Tour region or in Brittany . . . Exchanges this Spring include the annual Arctic Excursion of 11 Ridley students March 16 - 24 to Northern Quebec, which will be reciprocated by Inuit students in early April. Later in April, 30 Grade 11 French students will participate in an exchange trip to Mont-Laurier, Quebec (April 4-10); Quebec students will join us at Ridley May 2-9th . . .

Three Ridley students were recommended by an examining Board of Ontario Headmasters for the English Speaking Union Fellowship Exchange next year: Glen Daniel '84, Anne Mason '84 and Cynthia Asbil '84, all of St. Catharines . . . Ridley's Cadet Band, with refurbished drums, has been selected to march in the Niagara Falls Blossom Parade on May 5th just before Church Parade Sunday, May 6th . . . The Tiger Tribune put out what is generally accorded to have been its best issue ever (see Poll, pp 6-7), and a delightful trio of one-act plays capped the term, with Terrence Rattigan's The Browning Version an especially fine feature.

This Summer at Ridley

Elderhostel

(Ridley is pleased to announce its participation this summer for the first time in "Elderhostel", the continent-wide educational and social programme for not-so-retired persons. Under the direction of faculty member Michael Scott, Ridley's classrooms and residences will be the site of a lively session of education for its own sake this July. The following is reprinted (somewhat augmented) from Elderhostel's 1984 promotional brochure.)

ELDERHOSTEL combines the best traditions of education and hosting. Inspired by the youth hostels and folk schools of Europe, but guided by the needs of older citizens for intellectual stimulation and physical adventure, ELDERHOSTEL is for elder citizens on the move—not just in terms of travel but in the sense of reaching out to new experiences. It is based on the belief that retirement does not have to mean withdrawal, that one's later years are an opportunity to enjoy new experiences.

ELDERHOSTEL is a network of over 700 colleges/universities/independent schools/folk schools and other educational institutions in 50 states, Canada, Great Britain, Denmark, Sweden, Finland, Norway, France, Israel, and Italy, which offer special low-cost, short-term residential academic programs for older adults. It is open to people over 60 or to those whose spouse or companion qualifies. Most programs begin Sunday evening and end Saturday morning and are limited to 30 to 40 elders. The ELDERHOSTEL experience provides an informal and human atmosphere where the individual is important, making new friends is easy, and learning can be a truly liberating experience.

Ridley College

Ridley College (founded 1889) is Canada's largest, primarily boarding, independent secondary school. It is a co-educational and international institution. Located on the western outskirts of St. Catharines (population 124,000), the school is positioned in the Niagara Peninsula between Niagara Falls and Toronto and 45 minutes north-west of Buffalo, N.Y. The school is close to the Shaw

Festival in Niagara-on-the-Lake and Lewiston, N.Y.'s Art Park. Accommodation is available on a two-per-room basis. B,P,T

Want to Tune into Chambermusic?

If you want to know and hear more of great music of unknown composers (Spohr, Reinecke) and lesser known music of great composers (Verdi) written for friends, beautiful ladies, opulent dinners at courts for Dukes and enthusiasts; if you want to take part in live chamber music, come and join us.

Historical Archaeology— A Canadian Overview

The students will be introduced to the techniques and methodology currently employed in Canadian historical archaeology. A number of sites will be examined including military forts (Louisbourg, Nova Scotia) and fur trade posts (Fort St. James, B.C.), domestic sites (Homewood, Ontario) and industrial sites (Jordan and Yeigh Redware Pottery Site, Ontario).

Rita Michael, McMaster University

Science Fiction and the Future

The appeal of science fiction is in part dependent upon the natural desire of the reader to look into the future. How accurate have science fiction writers in the past been in predicting the present? And what can we expect of the future? Previous interest in science fiction is not required.

The River and the Lake

The cultural differences between America and Canada reflected in literature. We shall explore this idea, beginning with an exemplary classic from America, Mark Twain's Huckleberry Finn, and one from Canada, Stephen Leacock's Sunshine Sketches of a Little Town. Twain writes of the river, Leacock of the lake. Our discoveries will be pursued further in an examination of selected poetry and short fiction.

What Are the Roots of Present French-English Discontent?

This course will review major historical events which have effected French Canadian orientations to English Canada and to confederation. It will also focus on present-day developments beginning with the Quiet Revolution of 1960, including separatism, language, demography and culture and economics.

Juris Dreifelds, Brock

Classic Hollywood Cinema

The Hollywood Studio System was for years not only the model of efficiency in mass producing of movies as entertainment for audiences around the world, but also it paradoxically was instrumental in establishing the cinema as an art form. Through screenings of selected classic American films, such topics as film genre, the star system and authorship in the movies will be explored.

Academic Summer Session

Curriculum

The courses are directed toward the intelligent, self-motivated, mature student who would benefit from a residential Grade 13 course that has been designed as preparatory for first year courses at university.

The courses offered this year are Algebra, Calculus, English, and Economics. The courses will run for five weeks, with four hours of formal instruction for five days each week. There will be ample opportunity for small group or individual interaction with the course instructor. Daily supervised study periods and tutorials will be included along with the formal classroom hours.

Successful completion of the course will result in the awarding of the appropriate Grade 13 credit.

Residential

The program is aimed at the student who wishes to experience university preparatory courses that are taught in a residential setting. The majority of students will be in residence at the College, although a few non-boarders will be accepted. The residential aspect of the course will be supervised by two Residence Dons, who will also assist in the recreational programme that is part of the Summer Session. Rules suitable to older secondary school students will be in effect. Certain standards of conduct will be enforced. Details are available in a student handbook.

Scholarships & Bursaries

A financial assistance program is available. Full details are available from the Principal of the Ridley College Academic Summer Session.

Financial

The fees for the Academic Summer Session are:

Residential Student: $1500 (Includes all meals, accommodation and instruction.)

Day Student: $1000 (Includes lunch and dinner each day, plus instruction.)

A deposit of $350 is to be paid, upon acceptance, in exchange for a confirmed place in the Academic Summer Session. The fees are to be paid in full by June 1, 1984. No refunds for withdrawal will be given after June 1st unless the space can be filled from a waiting list. An administrative charge of $50 will apply to any withdrawal prior to June 1st. If a student withdraws during the session or is dismissed for disciplinary reasons, no refund will be available.

A. P. Sherman, Principal,
Academic Summer Session

The Faculty

All faculty members are experienced teachers with extensive expertise within their own discipline. The personnel have been selected for their teaching ability and also their positive interaction in small group situations. Close personal interaction is an integral part of the Academic Summer Session. To aid that purpose, teaching assistants are closely involved in each of the courses. Ridley College is a residential school and its faculty is well versed in the care of students away from home.

Daily Schedule

Resident students are well-supervised 24 hours a day. Day students take part in daily activities beginning at 8:30 a.m. and continuing until 9:00 p.m. The following is a sample of a daily routine which will vary somewhat from day to day:

8:00 - 8:30	Breakfast
9:00 - 11:00	Classroom
11:00 - 12:00	Library Work - Research, etc.
12:00 - 1:00	Lunch
1:00 - 3:00	Classroom
3:00 - 4:00	Tutorial or Group Projects
4:30 - 6:00	Recreation
6:00	Dinner
7:30 - 9:00	Evening Programme (including supervised study, improving study habits, movies, swimming, and other recreational activities, also time for academic counselling.)

Some field trips are planned for drama and other activities. Day Students eat lunch and dinner at the school and are welcome to participate in the Evening Programme.

Facilities

Modern, air-conditioned classrooms and library will be used. The Matthews Library has over 15,000 volumes of fictional and research books. Students will have access to the indoor pool, squash courts, tennis courts, gymnasiums, 84 acres of playing fields, student T.V. lounge, movies, tuck shop, and campus store.

Course Selections

1. Mathematics (Calculus) 552: This course is designed for those students wishing to continue in mathematics and provides preparation for university courses in the sciences, architecture, social sciences, and business. The following areas will be examined:

- a) Slopes of Lines and Derivatives
- b) Applications of Differentiation
- c) Integration
- d) Applications of Integrations

Recommended Background: Algebraic manipulation and familiarity with trigonometry is strongly recommended.

Prerequisites: Advanced level Grade 12 mathematics or non-Ontario equivalent.

2. Mathematics (Algebra) 553: This course is designed for students entering university in the pure and applied sciences, computer science, and engineering. These professions usually require all three mathematics courses at Grade 13 level. The following areas will be examined:

- a) Mathematical Induction and Binomial Theorem
- b) Vectors
- c) Equations of Lines and Planes
- d) Systems of Linear Equations
- e) Matrices and Linear Transformations

Recommended Background: Above average mathematical ability with an open mind. Being prepared to accept new ideas and topics which require some thought.

Prerequisites: Advanced level Grade 12 mathematics or non-Ontario equivalent.

3. English 551:

Composition - Work in all types of writing, including the book review, narrative and expository writing; prose appreciation and vocabulary study as time allows.

Literature - Contemporary Prose and Poetry, including the novels of such writers as Lawrence, Conrad, Woolf, Murdoch, Faulkner, Fitzgerald, Malamud, Bellow, Camus, Hesse, Kafka, Mann; the poetry of such major 20th-century figures as Eliot, Auden, Pound, Yeats, Thomas, Frost; a cross-section of the major contemporary short-story writers and essayists.

The emphasis will be on the critical analysis of a number of the master-works of our own time. The standard of writing, both critical and creative, is very demanding.

Prerequisites: Grade 12 English or non-Ontario equivalent.

4. Economics 550: This course is designed to give the student a solid foundation for post-secondary study in Economics. The student will become acquainted with basic economic theory and the 'tools' available for application to specific Canadian economic problems. The following areas will be examined:

- Microeconomics: a) Supply and Demand
b) The Theory of the Household and the Firm
c) Market Structure
- Microeconomics: a) Monetary and Fiscal Policy
b) Economic Growth
c) Distribution of Income
d) Trade

Prerequisite: None.

General Information

All students are required to deposit $75.00 in the Academic Summer Session "bank" to cover pocket money and possible weekend trips. This amount should be sent with the final payment. The balance in the "bank" at the end of the session will be refunded by cheque to the parents. Travel arrangements to and from the College, including cost, are the responsibility of the student.

For a nominal fee, pickup at the airport, bus terminal, etc., can be arranged. Please contact the Principal for details. Details regarding arrival/departure times will be forwarded with your final statement. Students may go home for Saturday and Sunday, or visit elsewhere with the specific permission of their parents. Course work may not allow a student to take all weekends totally off. Students are welcome to remain on campus each weekend and certain activities and excursions will be made available to them.

The Ridley College Computer Camp

The Camp

The program is offered to students ages 10-16. It is devoted to raising the understanding and appreciation of computers and programming in the BASIC language. Campers will be working within small groups of 6-8 (only 40 students will be admitted) which will allow personalized instruction and immediate access to the micro-computers. Each day will be a mixture of instruction, recreation and relaxation.

The Curriculum

Programming skills will be developed through five themes: Games and Simulation, Graphics and Sound Generation, Word Processing, Logo and Problems for Computer Solution. Students will spend an hour each day at each of these stations with instruction geared to the student's ability and needs. The curriculum will develop skills for both the beginner and the advanced student.

The Equipment

The program will feature a full range of Commodore micro-computers with peripheral disk drives and printers. Every student will have access to his or her own microcomputer which optimizes the learning opportunity of the student. Many of the popular Commodore software programs will also be available for the students to enjoy in their free time.

The Faculty

All instructors are experienced teachers with extensive expertise in computer science. Our counsellors have been chosen for their proficiency, their strong personal character and their enthusiasm. Local students may also attend as "day" students.

Daily Schedule

Residential students are well supervised 24 hours a day. Day students take part in daily activities beginning at 8:00 a.m. and continuing until 9:00 p.m. The following is a sample of daily schedule:

8:00- 8:30	Breakfast
9:00-10:00	Problems for Computer Solution
10:15-11:15	Graphics and Sound Generation
11:30-12:30	Recreation
12:30- 1:30	Lunch
1:30- 2:30	Logo
2:30- 3:30	Games and Simulation
3:30- 4:30	Word Processing
4:45- 5:45	Recreation
6:00-	Dinner
7:30- 9:00	Evening Program (including free computer time, computer competitions, movies, swimming and other recreational activities)

Day students eat lunch and dinner at the school and are welcome to take part in the evening activities.

Fees

Resident Student:
One week .....	$375.00
Two weeks .....	$690.00 (includes all meals, accommodation and instruction).
Day Student
One week .....	$325.00
Two weeks .....	$590.00 (includes lunch and dinner each day, plus instruction).

A $100.00 deposit must accompany the application form with the balance being due on June 1, 1984. Students are also required to deposit $25.00 per week in the Ridley College Computer Camp Bank to cover their pocket money. This is due when the balance of the tuition is paid.

(The following appeared in the Feb. 15, 1984 of the Ridley College student newspaper Tiger Tribune. We reprint it here, the survey questionnaire and breakdown of responses, plus the cogent analysis by the student editors, as an insight, however limited, into the concerns and thoughts, serious and perhaps frivolous, of two generations of the Ridley family, recent past and very present.)

Survey Says!

Questions 1 - 10 were taken from a survey in the school newspaper in 1967.

1. Do you get enough benefit from Ridley to justify the annual expenditure of $10,000/$6,000? ($2,500 1967)

1967 Yes 36% No 55% Undecided 9%

Analysis

Response to the first question shows that students are more satisfied now than they were at the time of the earlier survey. People do not feel that they are being forced into an oppressive society and it is the general consensus that Ridley is more open to the current trends of society in 1984 than it was in 1967. In the 60's, there were no girls; the school was more strict, and dogmatic traditions played a larger role than they do now. Since the school generally has more freedom now, it is not as different from other schools as it once was. The higher percentage of people here on bursaries shows that more people would like to come here.

It appears that there is paradox in the relation between questions one and two. The students of sixteen years ago were less satisfied with the school, but it seems that they could not translate this dissatisfaction into will to change those aspects of Ridley which made school life less tenable. More people did not want to relax discipline, the Old Boy System or chapel time, whereas now when they are not as oppressive, people wish to further relax Ridley society.

Changes in the structure of the school and students' attitudes towards university are responsible for a higher percentage of people feeling that the classroom is the most important aspect of the school. Sports and extra-curricular activities were more important then because of the way the school was set up. There were people who went through the school so spread-out extra-curricularly that marks were secondary. Universities and marks were not as important then as now because they were more likely to get into the university of their choice.

The general decline of the Old Boy System as reflected by question five is a result of the changing structure of society. There were more students then that went straight through the school than there are now. Presently, many students come for just the final years of the Upper School and are not steeped in tradition.

It is indeed curious to note that student support for a smoking room has remained the same considering all the student-level propaganda against smoking that has emerged in the last decade. However, these results do not necessarily mean that everyone who supports a smoking room is a smoker.

Question seven relates the social situations of the different times. Back then the dance was a more important social structure, whereas now there are more alternatives since girls are part of the school and there is more freedom for leaves.

In regards to question eight, Vietnam has become a perjorative term in most peoples' minds because they have been affected by the media (i.e. Apocalypse Now) and by America having lost face since most people accept it as a failure. The first survey was conducted while the war was still on while this present survey has taken place nine years after its conclusion. It appears that most of the people surveyed in 1984 would have supported the Vietnam cause in 1967 because they presently support American intervention in Central America. The intent in both Central America and Vietnam was to halt the spread of communism. Clearly, these two issues are similar in principle. However, the American failure in Vietnam has brought it ill-repute, even though support for the same cause has remained.

Cruise missile testing in Canada is a controversial issue that was perhaps swayed to the negative side by the publicity given to recent anti-nuclear demonstrations. Another factor is the support that many give toward Canada adopting the role of a middle power to further international peace.

Without considering the undecided votes concerning the most popularly supported federal political party, it is evident that support for the Progressive Conservative party is significantly higher than the national average shown in the recent Gallup Poll. Assuming that parental political views play a large part in shaping student opinion, it is easy to rationalize a Conservative majority, considering that most of Ridley's clientele are upper-middle class and are unwilling to sacrifice their social privilege for common welfare. Support for the Liberals at Ridley was slightly lower than the national average. However, the most striking result of the Ridley survey was the almost complete absence of support for the New Democratic Party which garnered the same number of votes as the Rhinoceros Party; the NDP's poor showing can be explained by the fact that most NDP supporters decline to send their children to schools such as Ridley.

Rightly or wrongly, a large proportion of the student body refused to answer the best-dressers questions on the grounds that it was trivial and gossippy. The editors tend to agree; however, it was included on the correct assumption that it would create controversy, something that the paper would like to encourage.

People showed more support for a centralized co-ed common room than any other question in the survey. This reflects the dissatisfaction shared by both students and Mr. Lewis that the Matthews Library has become the school's unofficial common room.

The survey has provided an interesting insight into the climate of opinion at Ridley in both the past and present. Perhaps the future Tribute editors in sixteen years time will do a similar analysis — providing that the optimists of question sixteen are proved correct.

Development Officer

Virginia Medland joined the staff of Ridley College as Development Officer on November 14, 1983. Miss Medland's responsibilities include Second Century Campaign fund raising and development, and co-ordinator for the Headmaster's Conference April 27 and 28, 1984.

Miss Medland is a graduate of B.S.S. class of '72, and now lives in St. Catharines. She attended Bishop's, Waterloo and Brock Universities, and recently graduated from Bishop's class of '83 with a B.A. in English.

Her experience as a fund raiser and development person has been in the fields of the arts and education. She served as assistant to the Director of Development at Brock University, St. Catharines, and as Director of Annual Giving and Corporate Sponsorships at the Shaw Festival, Niagara-on-the-Lake. Miss Medland is considered a full member of the Ridley Faculty.

Lent Term - Sports

1st Team Basketball Repeat as ISAA Champs

Ridley marked the end of 2nd Term sports with its second annual Winter Sports Awards Dinner on Thursday, March the 8th in the Great Hall. The guest speaker was M. Carson, O.R. '64, an outstanding gymnast while at Ridley. The purpose of the evening, of course, was to recognize excellence, commitment and sportsmanship of all the student athletes who took an active part in representing the School and to honour several outstanding athletes and teams. Since Awards Banquets tend to focus on just a few outstanding accomplishments, each coach has been given the opportunity to summarize his team's season.

COACHES' CORNER:

1st Team Swimming — Paul Lewis

With a team made up mostly of seniors and veterans an ISAA Championship was within grasp; however, St. Andrews ripped Ridley in the Championship meet. Steve Burpee as captain, and Harry Li, a newcomer, led the team to a regular season record of eight wins and no losses. Li set new pool records in breaststroke and Burpee, Chapman, Li and McGregor set a new 200 yard medley record, both at Ridley and at Appleby. Other strong performances were given by Hackshaw, Watson and Romano and the team's depth was consolidated with Johnstone, Heinrich, Bruderer, Law and Millar. Steve Burpee won, for a second consecutive year, the 45th U.C.C. Cup and Harry Li was awarded the H. S. Staples Trophy for performance, sportsmanship and improvement.

2nd Team Swimming — Mike Rattenbury

2nd Swimming had a great season with five wins, one tie and two losses. After defeating Appleby in their pool (breaking their three year home winning streak), we thought we had a good chance of winning the ISAA finals. Unfortunately, mother nature intervened with the worst snow storm of the winter causing us to forfeit.

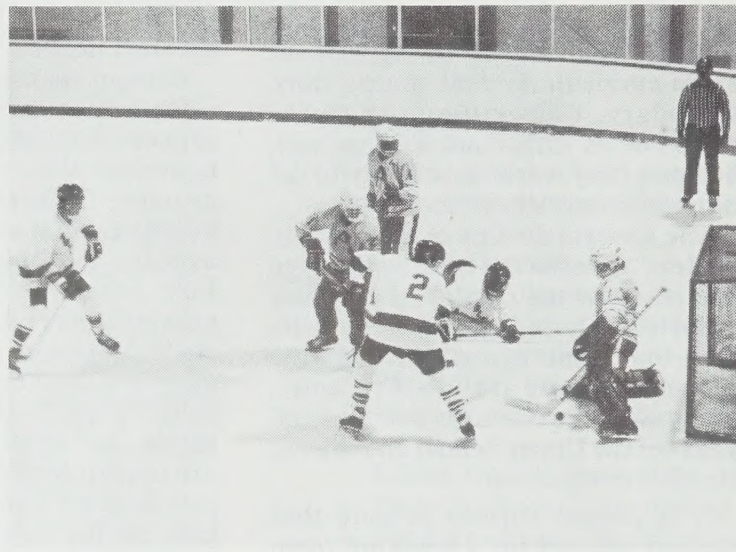

The winner of the 1984 Fullerton Trophy for the best swimmer not on 1st team is Colin Woo. Everyone on the team, however, is to be congratulated on their hard work and dramatic improvements of their personal best times.

1st Team Squash — Sandy Peters

The team was undefeated in the hardball season; however, it finished third in the finals in Toronto. During the mid-term break in February, the squad travelled to Princeton and Penn., losing to Princeton 4-1 and Penn. 5-0, but valuable experience was gained. In softball competition, the team compiled a 2 and 1 record and lost to Crescent School 4-1 in the finals. The team was ably captained by Brad Jones, supported by T. Urban and V. Mercnik, and newcomers, C. Stevens and D. Finkle, were useful additions.

U/16 Squash — Brian Martin

The team was composed of M. Zia Mian, D. Fletcher, S. Arroyave, S. Niblett, W. Silvera - Captain, N. Langhorne, seeded in that order. The season was the most successful in many years with a 9-1 record and earned them the unofficial ISAA Championship at their level. They also won the UCC Invitational Tournament. Mike Zia Mian's outstanding play suggests a very bright future for this young grade 10 student.

1st Hockey — Brian Iggulden

For a variety of reasons, the season ended in disappointment with a record of 13-11-2. Nevertheless, the team was capable of playing excellent hockey, beating UCC 3-1 for the first time in four years and defeating Moncton High 3-2. Moncton was the defending Eastern Canadian HS Champion and they were in first place in their league at the time. Thususka's dedication and leadership as captain earned him the Bunston Trophy and G. Stanley garnered the Headmaster's Trophy for his effort, ability and clean play. S. Murphy was the recipient of the W. C. Montgomery Trophy as rookie of the year. Seniors J. Cleary, A. Green, T. Hutchison, M. McRae, R. Patterson, D. Hand, P. Von Kaufmann and J. Newman deserve accolades for their success and special thanks to Andy Corolis, the School's first resident therapist, for his constant support and expertise.

2nd Team Hockey — Emmett O'Neill

While the second team did not have the win/loss record of 82/83, they did have the pleasure of a five-game winning streak. Especially gratifying were the wins against UCC and St. Andrew's, two teams we were unable to defeat last year. Special mention should be made of the core of players who gave all they had every game: A. Abrahams, J. Robertson, R. Wellenreiter, and C. Smith, Captain.

U/16 Hockey — Keith Mawhinney

The U/16 Hockey Team had a relatively successful season capped by two extremely close games in the tournament hosted by Ridley. The overall record was eight wins, six losses and two ties. Players who performed consistently throughout the season include Walter Wellenreiter, Tim Rigby, Brad and Brent Ferguson and Bill Morrison.

League Hockey — Simon Hall

Like a Phoenix from the ashes, League Hockey slowly resurrected itself. S. Hicks and now-you-see-him-now-you-don't, Tiggy Walker, captained the two competing teams who demonstrated great energy and enthusiasm.

1st Team Basketball — Dave Gagne

The team looked hard-pressed to duplicate last season's accomplishments since nine out of 11 players did not return. However, the two returning players, T. Badner and D. Vihj, who shared the Gromarty Trophy as the most outstanding players, co-captained the squad to a highly successful season's record, losing only once at Hillfield by one point in overtime. They were complemented by the strong inside play of a newcomer to Ridley, B. Hutchings, the hustle and aggressiveness of P. Newell and the youthful exuberance of a Lower School newcomer, H. Evans. Our dedicated bunch consisted of: D. Powell, S. Copp and A. Brook, all of whom made a significant contribution to the success of our season. What the team lacked in numbers, it more than made up for in size, speed and commitment. In the Second Annual ISAA Basketball Championship Tournament hosted by Crescent School, Ridley defeated TCS 60-48 in the semi-final and then, in what was the rubber-match after season play, handled Hillfield convincingly, defeating them by a score of 48-38. Only two of this year's team will be back again next year; however, a strong group of up and coming U/16's should round out the team in defence of the title.

2nd Team Basketball — Mike Hamilton

Although the team was 'un-undefeated' all season, spirits remained high nonetheless. The team showed intensity and pride in all of their games although the finishing touches seemed to be missing. The team very nearly stole the ISAA Tournament, after knocking-off the top ranked teams, UCC and St. John's, only to lose to the third place team, TCS. R. Ingall, G. Gimenez, and R. Finlayson spurred the others on and maintained morale. H. Wheaton was top scorer.

U/16 Basketball — Dave Whitty

This year's U/16 basketball team enjoyed a highly successful season. In League play, they finished in 2nd place with a 9-3 win/loss record. The team was skilled individually but more importantly, they played well together as a cohesive unit. Special mention must go to this year's team captain Hugh Silk. Hugh's leadership and game concentration was a fine example for the other team members to follow. With three members of the 83/84 squad still eligible for next year, the future looks bright for U/16 basketball.

Badminton — Mike Scott

In a rebuilding year, the team managed a 4-0 record with victories over local schools. The season is not yet over because the SOSSA Zone and Girls' Independent Schools competitions are in April. J. Neudorf and Linda Kolbert provide a good nucleus for the future. K. Bi, S. Wong, M. Eyton, S. Caters, S. Perris and P. Willett all added good depth. Thanks are given to Miss Lynne Facey-Crowther for her rigorous 'cals' programme and to the Captain, Alison Marshall and the Assistant Captain, Cynthia Asbil who provided strong leadership.

Cross-Country Skiing — Nancy Drope

Due to the lack of snow in January, the team was committed to running most days. Five students attended a meet at Rosseau Lake School. C. Lopez-Sanz and S. Northey arrived back from their practice runs exhausted just in time to start their race. Alison Loucks placed 6th and B. Millman finished in the top 20 of his division. Although the team only got to one meet, they faithfully checked in and checked out of practice.

Curling — George Briggs

This year's curling group was a small but enthusiastic one, with a good number of juniors to fill the rinks out for next season. The school was represented in the Gore Schoolboy competition where Ridley finished second in the consolation round, and also entered two rinks in the SOSSA competition. With the experience gained from competition this year, the curlers are looking forward to a profitable 84-85 season.

Volleyball — Michelle Romak and Gero Reinitzer

Although the team didn't do particularly well in the league, a definite improvement was shown by season's end. Practices were enjoyable and ballet was a device used to improve their skills. About half the team will return next season. Suzy Court's powerful serves and Sam Massey's unpredictable spikes helped the team tremendously in game situations.

A summary of a season of sports activities can not convey the pride and dedication Ridleians, male and female alike, display in every match they contest, nor does it indicate the level of sportsmanship shown wherever most Ridley teams compete. To a coach there is no finer compliment to his team than the approbation of a parent or of an appreciative official who says that it's always a pleasure to come to Ridley for a sports fixture.

Admission to Ridley A Friendly Warning!

The pattern of admitting students to Ridley has changed a great deal in the past few years due to pressure of numbers. Until comparatively recently, May or June was not too late to make applications to Ridley for the following September. Unfortunately, some Ridley graduates who have followed this pattern have been disappointed to find spaces filled and, as a result, the applications of their sons and daughters have had to be deferred until the following year.

If you are interested in Ridley for your son or daughter, it would be extremely wise to contact the School to arrange an interview as early as possible in the Autumn term preceding entry.

Ridley's Athletic Therapist

Andrew Corolis is not a trainer. "Trainers work with horses," he opines, "athletic therapists work with athletes." Since September of 1983, young Ridley athletes have had the benefit of Andy's professional attention, as he fulfills a role that is unique and precedent-setting for Canadian independent schools.

Working in close co-operation with the school nurse, Mrs. Ruth Henderson, and with its doctor, John Stewart, Andy tends to the therapeutic preparation and treatment of students (and, beyond the call of duty, of masters) for safe and healthful sporting activities. His clinic in the Griffith Gym has become an integral and highly-appreciated part of Ridley athletic life. He sees the service he provides as three-fold: preventative measures, immediate care, and rehabilitation.

Corolis stresses the primary importance of those preventative actions that he and the student athletes take which serve the purpose of making less needed the other two aspects of his role. For example, he instructs students individually in the appropriate stretching and warm-up for their particular sport; passes on the insights gained in his study of "biomechanics," the way in which various sports require the body to function.

Equally important in the prevention of injury is the proper fitting of equipment. As one instance of Andy's concern in this area, he instituted a "helmet week" during hockey season, during which each player's helmet was called in for safety inspection. Much of the equipment was found wanting (strings instead of screws holding straps, for instance) — and was promptly replaced. A similar programme will be pursued henceforth with football and other sports. In like manner, Andy has attempted to forestall "shin splint" injuries by seeing to suitable footwear, with padded correction where necessary.

Injuries, nonetheless, do happen. Typical and recurrent are muscular strains (resultant from improper stretching and insufficient time in warm-up); ankle sprains; and contusions, which are often inflicted by supposedly protective equipment that is ill-fitted.

For immediate care, the Athletic Injuries Clinic has, of course, all the standard first aid requisites, saving ice which must be "borrowed" from the infirmary. In addition, there is a plinth used as assessment table, various ankle weights for rehab and a rusted old stationary bicycle. What Corolis would like to augment the clinic is some equipment for specific needs that have come to the fore over past months. These include a small (5 cu. in.) freezer (it's quite a trek to the infirmary for that ice); a mobile whirlpool bath for full immersion; a facility for hydrocollator packs, hot pads used to treat chronic low back and other injuries; and an ultrasound unit, which breaks up scar tissue and speeds healing.

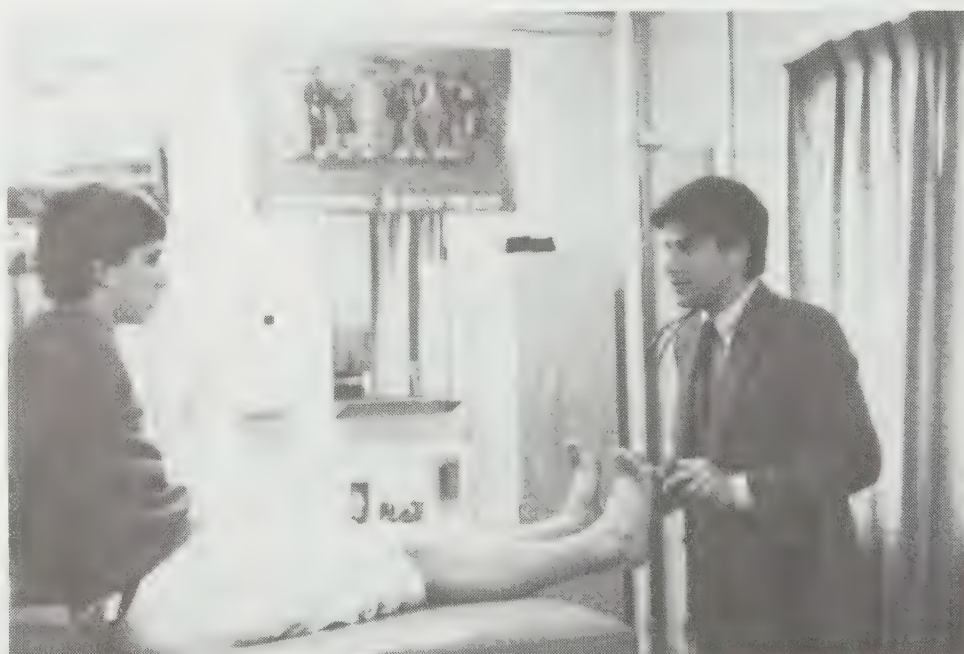

Andrew Corolis' policy about rehabilitation is explicit and firm. He will not return a student athlete to full participation "until he or she is 110%," by which he means not until that student is "better than before."

The tailored programme of rehab

each receives is one of gradual progression, with exercise that advances within expanding "pain-free" ranges. Andy describes the sequence as one from isometric (opposing specific muscles to resistance) to isotonic (normal contraction to control and lengthen) to isokinetic (movement against resistance throughout the whole range). Completing the rehab process is the familiar ritual of preventative strapping and appropriate counsel.

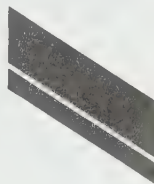

Ridley's first athletic therapist is a Toronto native who was graduated from Crescent School and studied towards a B.A. in Economics and History at Trent University. He undertook his present course by studying Athletic Therapy at Sheridan College, the only such programme in Canada. For a time, he was associated with the national junior field lacrosse team. Last summer, Andy began a continuing position with Sports Ridley, supervising off-ice fitness.

The major contribution that Andrew Corolis has made to Ridley athletics makes one wonder how our students limped and strained along without his skills, and also pleased that, from now on, fewer and fewer will needlessly have to suffer so.

An Open Letter to Association Members

The 1983 Association Reunion Week End was one of the best attended in history and, in almost all respects, a most enjoyable affair for both Alumni and the Staff. However, there are a couple of problems with which we, the Association, must be concerned. I would emphasize that it is a very small number of Alumni who in any way contribute to these problems.

The first of these concerns the drinking of alcohol by Alumni in public on the campus, most notably during the football game on Saturday afternoon. The practice of Alumni, particularly (though not exclusively) recent graduates, carrying beer around on the sidelines, has never been approved by the School and can no longer be countenanced by responsible Alumni. Next year all Alumni are requested by both the Association and the School not to consume any alcoholic beverages on campus except in areas that have been specifically set aside for this purpose. Turning the sidelines of the football game into an 'Octoberfest' does not reflect favourably upon Ridley in the eyes of parents and visitors.

The second difficulty with the Reunion Week End, which merits an apology to the School, and especially to the Headmaster, is the unfortunate 'tradition' of Alumni pranks on the Friday night of the Week End. This year saw less action than some, but one very unfortunate occurrence resulted because of a prank. After Alumni transported the furniture from the two Headmasters' offices outside during the early morning hours, a piece of valuable bronze statuary, which was the personal property of Mr. Packard, disappeared. It is literally irreplaceable and was of considerable sentimental value to the Headmaster. Perhaps this very unfortunate incident will make us realize how destructive these childish pranks can be.

This year a considerable amount of School employees' time was taken up in removing the minor ravages of pink paint, etc. Over the last five years, damage done to School property on Association Week End has probably surpassed the total Annual Giving of the two most recently graduated classes. I strongly support the decision by the School to employ security guards for the peace of the campus on Friday and Saturday nights. The small minority of Alumni who cannot behave responsibly may find their membership in the Association under review.

At a time when the Association is striving to become more and more active in multi-faceted support of the School, we must all think before we act. As members of the Association, we are Ridley — let's make sure our reputation remains unblemished.

Ridley College Association Approves New Constitution

At a Special General Meeting of the Association held at the School on Saturday, 22 October, 1983, an amended Constitution of the Ridley College Association was approved.

The key changes made to the Constitution were a result of a wish by the Executive of the Association and the headmaster that the Association become a more integral and active part of the School.

The new Constitution provides that the Association will be more actively involved in the following areas in future:

1. Maintaining close and frequent contact among all members of the Association—alumni, current and past parents, present and former staff and friends of the School.
2. Recruitment of Students.
3. Special Fund Raising projects.
4. School Life.

Towards this end, members of the Executive of the Association which meets monthly during the School Year would welcome your input.

The members of the 1983-84 Executive are listed below:

President ..... Peter Elwood ('66)
Vice President ..... Brian Jones ('66)
Secretary ..... S. G. Heaman ('39)

Branch Meetings

Buffalo and Western New York Branch

A charming pre-game cocktail party was organized by the branch to precede the annual First Hockey team game against Nichols. The party was again held at the lovely home of Bob Irwin '46 and his wife Donna, which is within walking distance of the Nichols' rink.

About 50 Association members attended and enjoyed the Irwin hospitality before moving on to watch the hockey game. Fred Jerauld '53, the Branch chairman, along with George Enos '41, Bob Irwin '46 and Porter Pfohl '43, worked very hard to organize the meeting.

Our Headmaster, Jeremy Packard accompanied by his wife Ingrid, along with Sam Heaman represented the School at the gathering.

Queen's University: R. E. Stanley '47 (and staff), Tom Stevens '79, Nat Caters (staff), Frank Stanley '81, Malcolm Matheson '81, Trevor Born '83.

New York City Branch

The annual meeting of the branch was held a little earlier this year in order to co-ordinate with the Headmaster's visit to New York to attend the yearly NAIS conference.

Jim Vick '70, our very capable outgoing branch chairman, organized the meeting which was held on Thursday 1 March. The meeting took the form of a cocktail party and was held at the charming apartment of Kathy Bergman, who is a friend of Gordon Naylor '73.

The location was central and very handy for the 30 or so Association members who attended. They were treated to lovely hors d'oeuvres prior to Jere Packard, our Headmaster, bringing everyone up to date on the state of the School. After speaking, Jere opened the meeting to a number of penetrating questions from the floor.

Our new branch chairman will be J. Griffin Strassenburgh '66, who was unable to attend due to being stranded in New England.

Speaking of being stranded, the St. Catharines contingent of Jere and Ingrid Packard, Virginia Medland, our new School development officer, along with Sam and Libby Heaman, were hardly able to dig themselves out of the worst snow storm in years in time to make their flights from Buffalo to New York.

Queen's University

It was decided that the Association, as a pilot project, would hold a meeting at Queen's for Ridley Alumni attending the University.

The meeting was held at the John Deutsch University Centre on Tuesday 7 February. All the arrangements were made by Derek D. Fraser '79, and we thank him for all his efforts, which included personally contacting many of our Alumni.

Those who attended thought the meeting was worthwhile and should be repeated. Including the Ridley contingent led by the Headmaster, and some non-university Association members who attended, over thirty turned out and enjoyed the informal evening.

The Ridley staff enjoyed talking with all the Alumni to find out how and what they are doing and apparently the Alumni enjoyed being brought up to date on the School.

The 5th Annual Big 'R' Bazaar

The Niagara Branch of the Ridley College Women's Guild is preparing once again for another successful Big 'R' Bazaar.

Our 5th Annual Bazaar, to be held on Saturday, October 13, 1984 from 11:00 to 3:00, is something of a milestone in our Guild history. Who would have thought, five years ago, that the ideas presented so modestly to Mr. Bradley, would develop into an event that brings so many of us together to work in such diverse ways. This year, to celebrate the success of the past five years and to underline the comradeship and fellowship that have made our success possible, the Bazaar Committee, headed by Anne Burpee, has chosen a multi-cultural theme. "An International Affair" will salute our students and the various cultural backgrounds that make up the rich fabric of Ridley life.

To make Bazaar '84 the big success that we now all expect, we do need all kinds of help. Anyone who can contribute ideas from a country other than Canada, who would like to share some aspect of their family's cultural heritage — including suggestions (and offerings!) of food and props, should contact Anne Burpee at 685-5812.

In five years the Big 'R' Bazaar has grown from a handful of workers to a large group of mums and dads who have found that working for Ridley means having fun for Ridley. Please bring your ideas and your talents and join us in organizing and producing "An International Affair".

The telephone committee will begin calling people in April, so please be thinking about how you can help.

Women's Guild

Gifts To The School

During the past term two most useful gifts were received by the School from the Toronto Branch of the Ridley College Women's Guild.

A dimmer board for the stage lighting system was presented to the Dramatic Society as a memorial to Mrs. Marilyn J. Niblett, a past president of the Toronto Branch, who died suddenly in late December. Her son David graduated in 1977 and her sons Stephen and Robbie are current students.

The snare drums belonging to the Cadet Corps Brass Band will be able to be renovated due to the generosity of the Toronto Branch of the Guild. These drums have needed repair for some time and the receipt of the funds to accomplish this project is very much appreciated.

Thank You Ladies.
